Question

The Chief Executives 'Volunteer Delivered Services Initiative' aiming to maximise volunteers contributions saw an external consultant engaged to look at the roles, support for and experience of volunteers across the service.

Please provide:

- 1/ A copy of the final report provided for senior management, up to and including the chief executive.
- 2/ Minutes of any meetings held across any departments within the service during the course of her work up to and beyond the point where the report was produced. This could include data gathering but also internal discussions following the conclusion of the report.
- 3/ Copies of any email communications following the baseline version of the report being produced when the content of such emails refers in part or in entirety to the contents of the report.

Answer

We have applied Section 27(1) of the Freedom of Information Scotland Act to the question asked. The exemption in section 27(1) allows public authorities to refuse to disclose information if they already plan to publish it within the next 12 weeks. The information will be made available on our website
